Paul R. Erickson
Managing Partner
Gutglass, Erickson, Bonville and Larson, S.C.

Attorney Paul R. Erickson concentrates his practice in professional liability, commercial litigation, products liability, securities liability, corporate governance, and licensing and peer review matters.

An experienced trial attorney at all levels of the Wisconsin court system, Paul has successfully protected core business assets and professional reputations for clients in a wide range of professional specialties.

Clients turn to him to apply his experience in anticipating possible case outcomes well in advance and preparing appropriate strategies for success. His record has earned him a strong reputation among local healthcare providers and institutions as well as many corporations and organizations in other markets.

One highlight in particular, Paul recently obtained a favorable result before the Wisconsin Supreme Court on behalf of a financial institution client, which resulted in the reversal of a $600,000 jury verdict (Town Bank v. City Real Estate Development, LLC, 2010 WI 134).

Recognized as a Wisconsin Super Lawyer every year since 2006, Paul is a regular speaker on various legal and professional liability and risk management issues.
